Academic Medicine

The Medicus Firm has experienced executive recruiters solely focused on academic medicine. Our recruiters have been employed by academic institutions, conducting numerous leadership searches during their tenure. This experience allows them a unique perspective and a clear understanding of how to assist our academic clients secure the best leaders for their institutions.

To date The Medicus Firm has successfully completed executive searches for over 30 AAMC institutions, and we have developed a stellar reputation for securing well qualified physician leaders and physician scientists for our clients' Departments, Divisions, and Dean's offices. In academic medicine, we conduct the following searches:

- Dean
- Sr. Associate / Associate / Assistant Dean
- Department Chair
- Division Director / Chief
- Program Director, fellowship or residency
- Research Director, Department (MD/PhD or PhD)
- Basic Science Department leadership (MD/PhD or PhD)
- Department / Division Administrator (non-physician)
